

FREE Frost Family Day!

Parent Club

LEARN • SHARE • CONNECT

The Patricia & Phillip Frost Art Museum and The Children's Trust Parent Club in collaboration with FIU's Center for Children and Families and Mr. Frank Jurado from Jam Tree Studios invites you to join us on May 11th at 11:30 am during the FREE Frost Art Family Day to experience an interactive reading workshop with music, arts and crafts for families with young children. Enjoy several hands-on activities offered by the museum after the reading.

READY, Set, Go: Music & Movement

Explore the ways that music and movement support language development in young children. Examples of activities that use music and movement creatively to build fundamental literacy skills like listening, focused attention, and comprehension will be shared.
